THE RYLES ARMS

Freehouse

In September 2010 we bought our very first free house, The Ryles Arms. Located in Sutton, just outside Macclesfield, it's an easy 20 minute drive from The Brownlow. The menu is similar to the Brownlow's so you'll be able to visit with confidence knowing that you'll find a great plate of food at the right price. I fell in love with it when I first visited – It's located in the open countryside with gorgeous views over hills and fields.

Our business partner at The Ryles, Alex, learnt his trade here at The Brownlow – 7 years service to be exact. He and his team have built up a great reputation and look forward to the day where we no longer affectionately refer to The Ryles as “The Brownlow's little brother”!

A special feature of the Ryles Arms is the six en-suite letting rooms located in a converted barn next door to the pub. They offer a unique dine and stay, and for £130 per couple you get treated to any three course meal from the menu or specials board, and yes, this includes fillet steaks (no catches, I promise), your night's accommodation and a full English breakfast in the morning.

– Great for spoiling your loved one or as a group of friends having a night out without the hassle of mini cab costs or one of you having to drive home!
